A brief history of Dux de Lux

Originally opened in 1978 as a vegetarian restaurant, Richard Sinke and friends purchased Dux de Lux in 1980 and continued the vegetarian menu.

The Tavern Bar was opened in 1983 and hosted a great number of bands between five and seven nights a week. This opened up to a courtyard that accommodated restaurant and bar guests.

1989 saw the large Brew Bar open complete with operating brewery producing a range of craft beers as well as a seafood Tapas bar. This also saw the opening of the second, larger courtyard. Dux de Lux was one of the first craft breweries in New Zealand

In 1998 the De Lux Lounge cocktail lounge was opened upstairs and included five pool tables. This bar hosted a number of private functions.

New Year's Eve saw some of New Zealand's top talent perform to crowds of up to 5,500 fans. Christmas Eve became another huge evening with people returning from all corners of the world to meet at The Dux.

Post-quake (2011) Dux quickly established Dux Live in November that year in Addington and this quickly became an important venue to local and touring musicians as well as the music fans. This was always only a four year project.

2012 we opened Dux Dine in Riccarton which continued the tradition of the seafood and vegetarian cuisine however this time in a slightly more formal seated dining style.

2015 opened Dux Central, a four bar complex including the Brew Bar - craft beer bar, Emerald Room - wine bar, Poplar Social Club - speakeasy cocktail lounge, and Upper Dux - functions and dining space

Dux - Bringing people together for over 40 years
